

Cooperation agreement concerning the Department of Communication and Media

This co-operation agreement, hereinafter "agreement", has been signed between the The Student Union for Humanities and Theology at Lund University, hereinafter "HTS", and the Social Sciences Student Union at Lund University, hereinafter "the Social Sciences Student Union", with the aim of clarifying the division of responsibilities between the parties regarding the Department of Communication and Media, hereinafter "KOM".

KOM is a shared department between the Faculty of Social Sciences and the Faculties of Humanities and Theology, which means that there is a shared responsibility between the contracting parties over the study monitoring of the programmes at the undergraduate and graduate level located at KOM. This agreement regulates what obligations the parties to the agreement have towards the students at KOM and what membership alternatives are possible for the mentioned students. As per decision of the faculties, KOM will be dissolved and no longer be a shared department after the 31st December 2024.

Contract period and termination

The agreement enters into force on 1st July 2024 and applies until 31st December 2024. If one of the parties wants to terminate the agreement, the notice period is one month.

Commitments

Through the agreement, the parties' commitments to the students at KOM are distributed as follows:

It is the responsibility of the Social Sciences Student Union to

- be responsible for education monitoring for all students studying at undergraduate and graduate level at KOM,
- appoint student representatives to departmental bodies, such as the department board and management groups for programs provided at the undergraduate and advanced level of education,
